System Implementation

Highly automated driving (HAD) boosts the complexity and adds a large bundle of system implementation as well as system integration topics.

Continental Engineering Services (CES) is your one-stop-service provider for all kind of system implementation services. CES covers all project phases starting with concept design till system release.

Our specialists have long-term engineering experience using advanced tools, standards and methods.

We have full access to the entire Continental technology and expertise pool.

Services
- Safe and secure system architecture
- Safety concept design
- System project management
- Requirements definition and management
- Test management
- Process engineering and consulting

Benefits and Possibilities
- Avoidance of system project risks by selecting CES as single contact point
- Management of system project topics using approved standards and methods
- CES as experienced service provider ensures project efficiency
- Support your experts with our on-site consultants

Continental Engineering Services GmbH
Graf-Vollrath-Weg 6 · 60489 Frankfurt/Germany
Phone +49 69 678696-0 · Fax +49 69 678696-070
www.conti-engineering.com